New Learning	What you will be learning about this week	Class, Capitalism and Socialism: 1912-1946 In this lesson, we will explore the political changes and the class changes that occurred between 1912 and 1946. We also begin to explore political and social class in the play 'An Inspector Calls'.	Staging the Play: Set design and stage directions In this lesson, we will focus on Priestley's use of set design, props and lighting to reveal the key traits of the Birling family	Character introductions In this lesson, we will explore the relationship dynamics that are presented in the early stages of the play. We will look at key terms, such as supremacy, hostility and patriarchy, and then look at various key character pairs. Within those pairs, we will consider what the dynamic is of each relationship.
